

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
Washington, DC 20463

Via Federal Express

JUL 16 2010

Sam Kazran
1531 Harrington Park Drive
Jacksonville, FL 32225

Re: MUR 6054

Dear Mr. Kazran:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, on June 23, 2009, the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that you knowingly and willfully violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f, and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a knowing and willful violation has occurred.

The Commission may or may not approve the General Counsel's recommendation. Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within 15 days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (ten copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (These copies of your brief should also be forwarded to the Office of the General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief that you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote on whether there is probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

If you are unable to file a responsive brief within 15 days, you may submit a written request for an extension of time. All requests for extensions of time must be submitted in writing five days prior to the due date, and good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days and an appropriate tolling agreement will be required.

You may also request an oral hearing before the Commission. See "Procedural Rules for Probable Cause Hearings," 72 Fed. Reg. 64918 (Nov. 19, 2007). Hearings are voluntary, and an adverse inference will be drawn by the Commission based on a respondent's decision not to request such a hearing. Any request for a hearing must be

12044311128

MUR 6054
Sam Kazran
Page 2

submitted along with your reply brief and must state with specificity why the hearing is being requested and what issues the respondent expects to address. The Commission will notify you within 30 days of your request for a hearing as to whether or not the request has been granted.

Should you have any questions, please contact Jack Gould, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

Thomasenia P. Duncan
General Counsel

BY: Kathleen M. Guith
Acting Associate General Counsel
for Enforcement

Enclosure
Brief

12044311129

1 BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

2
3 In the Matter of)

4)
5 Sam Kazran)

MUR 6054

6
7
8 GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

9
10 I. INTRODUCTION

11 The Federal Election Commission ("Commission") ascertained information in the 12 ordinary course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities that 11-2001 LLC d/b/a Hyundai
13 of North Jacksonville ("HNJ") reimbursed contributions to Vern Buchanan for Congress
14 ("VBFC"). At all relevant times Sam Kazran ("Kazran") was the president of HNJ.

15 On June 23, 2009, the Commission found reason to believe that Kazran knowingly and 16 willfully violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f by assisting HNJ in making contributions to VBFC in the 17 names of HNJ employees and their relatives. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(1)(iii); Kazran Factual
18 and Legal Analysis in MUR 6054. Evidence obtained during the investigation, including
19 documents from HNJ and testimony from Kazran, shows that Kazran knowingly and willfully
20 used HNJ funds to reimburse his employees and others for contributions they made to VBFC,
21 and thereby assisted HNJ in making illegal contributions in the name of another. See 11 C.F.R.
22 § 110.4(b)(1)(iii). Accordingly, the Office of General Counsel intends to recommend that the 23 Commission find probable cause to believe that Sam Kazran knowingly and willfully violated
24 2 U.S.C. § 441f.

25 II. BACKGROUND

26 In 2004, Kazran acquired a forty-nine percent (49%) interest in HNJ from Vernon G.
27 Buchanan ("Buchanan"), who continued to hold a controlling fifty-one percent (51%) interest in 28 HNJ. See Kazran deposition ("Kazran Depo") at 5, 6. Kazran subsequently bought out
29

12044311130

1 Buchanan's interest in HNJ and by 2008 was the sole owner of HNJ. Kazran Depo at 68.
2 In 2006, Buchanan was elected to Congress and he has remained in office to date. His principal
3 campaign committee is Vern Buchanan for Congress ("VBFC").

4 According to Kazran, starting in 2005, Buchanan instructed him to raise funds for
5 Buchanan's political campaigns, and directed him to reimburse the contributors using dealership
6 funds.¹

7 A. Contributions Reimbursed with HNJ funds in 2005

8 Kazran testified that in November 2005, Buchanan told Kazran that he had to gather as 9 much money as possible and that "I'm going to put your name on $50,000 that you've got to 10 raise by the end of the quarter." Kazran Depo at 11. Kazran arranged for employees to 11 contribute to VBFC and for their contributions to be reimbursed with HNJ funds. Kazran Depo
12 at 21. In sum, HNJ reimbursed $16,800 in contributions in 2005, all dated November 29, 2005.

13 Kazran testified that Buchanan told him to reimburse these employee contributions with 14 HNJ funds: "And he specifically told me get someone you trust and run it through the 15 corporation." Kazran Depo at 21. Kazran explained that "run it through the corporation" meant

¹ Kazran also testified that Buchanan instructed him to have contributors make contributions from joint checking accounts to raise the level of their contributions. Kazran Depo at 22, 28. Before Kazran made his first contribution to VBFC, Buchanan asked if Kazran and his wife were on the same checking account, and when Kazran stated that his wife wrote the checks, Buchanan said that Kazran's contribution could be approximately $9,000. Kazran Depo at 11. Similarly, when discussing contributions that he reimbursed that were made in the names of Vincent and Patricia Sams, Kazran explained that he thought Vincent wrote a check that had both their names on it and "That was one of the things that I was told you got to make sure there's two people on the check to get the most amount." Id. at 28.

According to the FEC disclosure database, on July 25, 2005, Kazran (also identified on disclosure reports as Sam Khazran) contributed $4,200. Kazran testified that he did not reimburse himself using company funds for his contribution to VBFC. Kazran Depo at 13. The FEC disclosure database also indicates that Sam Khazran and his wife, Miryam Khazran, each contributed $4,600 to VBFC on September 27, 2007, for a total of $9,200. These contributions were also not reimbursed.

1 that Kazran should have employees write personal checks and then give them back the money
2 using dealership funds. Kazran Depo at 14, 37, 72.

3 Joshua Farid, Kazran's business partner and brother-in-law, described to us in an
4 interview a conversation that he overheard between Kazran and Buchanan relating to reimbursed
5 contributions by HNJ employees. Farid stated that this conversation occurred in 2005, just 6 before Kazran asked him to contribute to the Buchanan campaign.² According to Farid, he was 7 at the HNJ dealership one day and saw Kazran walking out of the "sales tower," apparently 8 engaged in a conversation on his cell phone. When Kazran saw Farid, he motioned him over to 9 where he was standing, and Farid then followed Kazran to his office. Once in the office, Kazran
10 held the phone away from his ear so Farid could hear the conversation. Farid said that he 11 recognized the voice to be Buchanan's. Farid said that Buchanan and Kazran were discussing 12 campaign contributions. Buchanan stated that he needed Kazran to raise $50,000 in 13 contributions. Kazran told Buchanan that he had already contributed the maximum allowable
14 contribution to the campaign.³ Buchanan then told Kazran to have his employees contribute to 15 the campaign and then reimburse them for their contributions with HNJ funds. Farid recalled
16 that Buchanan used the term "run it through the company" when instructing Kazran how to 17 reimburse his employees.

18 With the exception of Kazran's own first contribution to VBFC, all of the HNJ employee
19 contributions he arranged in 2005 were reimbursed using company funds. Kazran Depo at 27, 20 33, 53. Kazran contacted his office manager, Diana Smith, and his controller, Gail Lephart. He 21 instructed them to write a personal check to VBFC and then to reimburse themselves. Kazran

² VBFC disclosed that Farid and his wife contributed $8,400 to VBFC on March 31, 2006.

³ VBFC disclosed that Sam Khazrawan a.k.a. Sam Kazran contributed $4,200 to VBFC on July 25, 2005.

12044311132

1 Depo at 21. As controller, Lephart is the dealership executive who could issue checks. Kazran
2 Depo at 21. The first time Kazran told Lephart to use dealership checks to reimburse
3 contributions, he told her that they would be getting money back from Buchanan. Kazran Depo
4 at 22. "I said, ['I don't know when, he just asked me to do it.[']" Kazran Depo at 22.

5 Lephart stated during an interview that just before she made a contribution to VBFC on 6 November 29, 2005, Kazran walked into her office talking on his cell phone. Lephart recalled
7 Kazran stating something close to "Vern, I'll handle it now," and Lephart assumed he was 8 talking to Buchanan.

9 According to Lephart, immediately after ending the call, Kazran told Lephart that he 10 needed her to make a contribution to VBFC. Lephart stated that Kazran also specified the 11 amount she needed to contribute, which was greater than $7,000, using a personal check. Kazran
12 also said that she should reimburse herself for the full amount of the contribution using HNJ
13 funds. Further, Kazran asked Lephart to find other HNJ employees to make similar contributions
14 and to reimburse those contributions, as well as her own, through the HNJ payroll account.⁴
15 Kazran instructed Lephart to send the contributions by overnight delivery to VBFC. She did not 16 recall whether Kazran told her that Buchanan instructed him to reimburse employee
17 contributions to VBFC.

18 Lephart contributed in her own name and her husband's name. Lephart also recalled
19 creating the reimbursement check for Diana Smith. The evidence in this matter shows that the 20 following HNJ employees made contributions in the following amounts to VBFC in 2005 using 21 HNJ funds, on the following date listed by VBFC on its disclosure reports:

⁴ Lephart stated that she created entries in the HNJ payroll account listing the reimbursements as salary payments, which included income tax withholding.

12044311133

Lephart, Ernest C.	11/29/2005	$2,100.00
Lephart, Ernest C.	11/29/2005	$2,100.00
Lephart, Gayle	11/29/2005	$2,100.00
Lephart, Gayle	11/29/2005	$2,100.00
Smith, Diana M.	11/29/2005	$2,100.00
Smith, Diana M.	11/29/2005	$2,100.00
Smith, Gary W.	11/29/2005	$2,100.00
Smith, Gary W.	11/29/2005	$2,100.00

1
2 According to Kazran, HNJ gave employees the reimbursements on the same day as their 3 contributions because they did not have enough money in their accounts to cover the 4 contributions. Kazran Depo at 27-28.

5 B. Contributions Reimbursed with HNJ funds in 2006

6 Kazran reimbursed another $16,800 in contributions made to VBFC with HNJ funds in 7 June 2006, reimbursements that he testified he made at the direction of Buchanan. Kazran also 8 testified that he reimbursed contributions made by his business partner Vincent Sams and his 9 wife. See Kazran Depo at 27-28. VBFC disclosure reports show that contributions were made in 10 the names of Sams and his wife totaling $7,500 in January 2006.

11 Farid stated during his interview that Kazran advised him that Buchanan was "pressing
12 him" to raise funds for Buchanan's congressional campaign and that Farid and his wife
13 responded by contributing a total of $8,400 on March 31, 2006. According to Farid, a short time
14 afterwards, HNJ employee Gail Lephart gave Farid an HNJ check reimbursing Farid and his wife
15 for the total amount of their contributions.⁵ Kazran also reimbursed his brother, Eric Khazravan
16 and his wife.

⁵ Lephart stated that she did not recall how the 2006 contributions were reimbursed by HNJ, including those of the Farids.

12044311135

1 In sum, the evidence shows that HNJ reimbursed $32,700 in contributions in 2006, as set
2 forth in the chart below.

Sams, Vincent G.	1/02/2006	$2,100.00
Sams, Vincent G.	1/02/2006	$2,100.00
Sams, Patricia G.	1/02/2006	$2,100.00
Sams, Patricia G.	1/02/2006	$1,200.00
Farid, Atefah K.,	3/31/2006	$2,100.00
Farid, Atefah K.	3/31/2006	$2,100.00
Farid, Joshua	3/31/2006	$2,100.00
Farid, Joshua	3/31/2006	$2,100.00
Cutaia, Dorcas A.	6/28/2006	$2,100.00
Cutaia, Dorcas A.	6/28/2006	$2,100.00
Cutaia, Joseph P.	6/28/2006	$2,100.00
Cutaia, Joseph P.	6/28/2006	$2,100.00
Khazravan, Eric	6/28/2006	$2,100.00
Khazravan, Eric	6/28/2006	$2,100.00
Khazravan, Heidi	6/28/2006	$2,100.00
Khazravan, Heidi	6/28/2006	$2,100.00

3
4 Kazran testified that there was a connection between the $16,800 in contributions made by 5 HNJ employees and their relatives in June 2006 and a transaction he was negotiating with 6 Buchanan at that time. Kazran Depo at 34-36. Dodge had awarded a new dealership to Kazran at 7 a location called Gwinnett Place, but under his partnership agreement, Buchanan had the right of 8 first refusal. Kazran Depo at 53. According to Kazran, Buchanan used that right to force Kazran
9 to give Buchanan 51% ownership in Gwinnett Dodge. Kazran Depo at 53. When Kazran later
10 offered to purchase Buchanan's share of Gwinnett Dodge, Buchanan told Kazran that he would 11 have to pay $1,000,000 to Buchanan. Kazran wanted to pay a lower amount, and he wanted to 12 pay in installments because he did not have the money. Kazran Depo at 13, 35. In exchange for 13 agreeing to allow Kazran to purchase Buchanan's share in installments, Buchanan wanted Kazran

1 to commit money to VBFC. Kazran Depo at 53.⁶ Buchanan told Kazran, "by Friday [June 30,
2 2006] I want you to raise [$25,000 or $50,000]." Kazran Depo at 13.

3 That's when he told me, he said -- in fact, that Tuesday before the end of the month in 4 June, I bet you its one of the close of time, because he told, he said, Friday is the end and
5 I need you to raise -- I don't remember if it was $25,000 or $50,000. And he said, if you
6 do that, then I'm going to take care of that payment. So instead of paying him all at once,
7 he agreed to let me make payments on his buyout portion, but I had to raise that money.⁷

8
9 Kazran Depo at 35; see also id. at 13.

10 According to Kazran, when he explained that he did not have the money Buchanan
11 wanted, Buchanan replied, "Well, don't you have somebody at the dealership you can trust? Just 12 run it through the corporation." Kazran Depo at 36; see also id. at 13. The evidence in this 13 matter shows that two HNJ employees and their spouses each contributed $4,200 to VBFC on 14 June 28, 2006, for a total of $16,800, contributions that were reimbursed by HNJ.

15 In an interview, Joshua Farid largely corroborated Kazran's account of this discussion
16 with Buchanan about Gwinnett Dodge. Farid stated that he witnessed a conversation between 17 Kazran and Buchanan regarding political contributions to Buchanan's congressional campaign
18 and ongoing negotiations between Buchanan and Kazran regarding $300,000 that Kazran needed
19 to pay Buchanan for a Dodge dealership. Farid stated that in exchange for Kazran being 20 permitted to pay by installment rather than one lump sum payment, Buchanan asked Kazran to 21 provide VBFC with either $25,000 or $50,000. Farid stated that based on his conversation with 22 Kazran, he understood that Buchanan wanted Kazran to again solicit employees to contribute to

⁶ According to Buchanan's disclosure reports filed with the House of Representatives, Buchanan purchased his share of Gwinnett, L.L.C. on January 12, 2006. Vern Buchanan House of Representatives Financial Disclosure Reports dated May 14, 2007. Kazran and Buchanan concluded their agreement for Kazran to purchase Buchanan's share on June 26, 2006. Kazran Depo at 34-35; Vern Buchanan House of Representatives Financial Disclosure Reports dated May 14, 2007.

⁷ The Tuesday before the end of the month of June in 2006 was June 27, 2006, and the close of the reporting period that was included in the July 2006 Quarterly Report to the Commission was Friday, June 30, 2006.

1 his campaign and reimburse them for their contributions through the company. Farid told
2 Kazran that he thought that what Buchanan asked him to do was improper.

3 C. Contributions Reimbursed with HNJ funds in 2007

4 HNJ funds were again used to reimburse contributions in 2007, totaling $18,400.

5 According to Kazran, Buchanan always told Kazran that he was counting on him as the only
6 person who could "raise this kind of money." Kazran Depo at 53.

7 According to Gail Lephart, Sam Kazran approached her again in 2007 and explained that 8 employees needed to contribute to VBFC and be reimbursed through the company. Lephart told 9 Kazran that she was concerned about company funds being used to reimburse contributions, but 10 he only responded with a shrug. Kazran corroborated Lephart's statement. Kazran Depo at 22.

11 Lephart asked HNJ employee Stephanie Champ to contribute more than $8,400,
12 assuming that Champ would contribute jointly with another person as Lephart had done with her
13 husband. According to Lephart, someone at VBFC later advised her that Champ could not
14 contribute more than $2,300 (per election). Consequently, Lephart approached HNJ employee
15 Joe Cutais, who agreed to contribute to VBFC and be reimbursed. Champ gave the 16 reimbursement she received from Lephart to Cutais. The following HNJ employees and family
17 members made contributions with HNJ funds on December 31, 2007:

18

12044311137

Cutaia, Doreen A.	12/31/2007	$2,300.00
Cutaia, Doreen A.	12/31/2007	$2,300.00
Champ, Stephanie K.	12/31/2007	$2,300.00
Champ, Stephanie K.	12/31/2007	$2,300.00
Lephart, Ernest C.	12/31/2007	$2,300.00
Lephart, Ernest C.	12/31/2007	$2,300.00
Lephart, Gayle	12/31/2007	$2,300.00
Lephart, Gayle	12/31/2007	$2,300.00

Lephart stated that the HNJ funds used for the reimbursement of these contributions came from the dealership's operating account.

D. Total Reimbursements at HNJ

Kazran testified that he believed that the total value of all reimbursements using HNJ funds was very close to or over $100,000. Kazran Depo at 48-49. The investigation in this matter has located a total of $67,900 in reimbursed contributions to VBFC using HNJ funds: $16,800 in 2005, $32,700 in 2006, and $18,400 in 2007. This $67,900 figure is based on Kazran's testimony about the reimbursed contributions, which corresponds closely with Kazran's estimate in an email that he sent to John Tosch, the vice president and secretary of all of Buchanan's automotive companies, on October 5, 2008, in which Kazran estimated that the amount of reimbursed contributions, minus unspecified credit card contributions, was $70,000. See email from Sam Kazran to John Tosch, Buchanan's corporate CEO, dated October 5, 2008 in Kazran Documents at FEC000001.

12044311138

1 As for Buchanan, he testified that he could not remember "one way or the other" whether
2 he asked Kazran to fundraise. Buchanan Deposition at 89. On the other hand, Buchanan also
3 testified that, "I'm sure I made it clear to him that you can't reimburse contributions." Id. at 93.
4 When asked when he would have made it clear to Kazran, Buchanan testified that he did not
5 know but he was "sure any time I would ask him, because he would ask me what the rules are, so
6 I wanted to make sure he understood that." Id. at 93-94. Buchanan specifically denied advising
7 Kazran to find someone he trusted at HNJ and reimbursing contributions to VBFC. Id. at 98-99.

8 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

9
10 The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("Act"), defines "contribution"
11 as anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for federal 12 office. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i). Under the Act, no person shall make a contribution in the name
13 of another person or knowingly permit his or her name to be used to effect such a contribution.
14 2 U.S.C. § 441f; 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(1)(i). This prohibition further provides that no person
15 shall knowingly help or assist any person in making a contribution in the name of another.
16 See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(1)(iii). Contributions in the name of another include giving money, all 17 or part of which is provided to the contribution by another person (the true contributor) without 18 disclosing the source of money to the recipient candidate or committee at the time the 19 contribution is made. 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(2)(i).

20 Kazran admitted that he instructed his employees to make contributions to VBFC and 21 that he told HNJ's comptroller to reimburse those employees using HNJ funds. Mr. Kazran also 22 admitted that he used HNJ funds to reimburse his brother and business partners and their spouses
23 for their contributions to VBFC. By using HNJ funds to reimburse contributions to VBFC, 24 Kazran made HNJ the actual contributor to VBFC. The employees and other individuals who

12044311139

1 were reimbursed with HNJ funds were merely the conduits for HNJ's contributions, whose
2 names were used to disguise the true source of the contributions. Accordingly, the evidence
3 shows that Kazran knowingly assisted HNJ in making contributions in the names of others in 4 violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441f.

5 The investigation further revealed that Sam Kazran's violation was knowing and willful.
6 The phrase "knowing and willful" indicates that "acts were committed with a knowledge of all
7 the relevant facts and a recognition that the action is prohibited by law...." H.R. Rpt. 94-917 at 8 3-4 (Mar. 17, 1976) (reprinted in Legislative History of Federal Election Campaign Act
9 Amendments of 1976 at 803-04 (Aug. 1977)); see also National Right to Work Comm. v. FEC, 10 716 F.2d 1401, 1403 (D.C. Cir. 1983) (citing AFL-CIO v. FEC, 628 F.2d 97, 98, 101 (D.C. Cir.
11 1980) for the proposition that "knowing and willful" means "'defiance' or 'knowing, conscious,
12 and deliberate flaunting' [sic] of the Act"); United States v. Hopkins, 916 F.2d 207, 214-15 (5th 13 Cir. 1990). The Hopkins court also held that taking steps to disguise the source of funds used in 14 illegal activities might reasonably be explained as a "motivation to evade lawful obligations."
15 Hopkins, 916 F.2d at 213-14 (citing Ingram v. United States, 360 U.S. 672, 679 (1959)) (internal 16 quotations omitted).

17 Kazran testified that he did not know that what Buchanan instructed him to do was illegal
18 and that if Buchanan had told him it was illegal he would not have gotten involved. Kazran 19 Depo at 87-88. However, the undisputed circumstances indicate that Kazran's violation was in 20 fact knowing and willful. Kazran, president of HNJ and a business partner of Buchanan, directed 21 a subordinate, the HNJ controller, to write the reimbursement checks which in many cases were
22 given to the employees on the same day they wrote contribution checks to VBFC. Thus, Kazran
23 was aware that he made HNJ the actual contributor, not his employees and business partners and

1 their spouses who wrote checks – in amounts he directed – to VBFC. This was no isolated
2 incident; Kazran carried out this arrangement over the course of three years, 2005-2007, for a 3 total amount of $67,900 in contributions made in the name of another.

4 Kazran was also aware, according to his testimony, of Buchanan's desire to show that
5 other people, not just Buchanan himself, supported Buchanan's campaign with contributions.
6 See Kazran Depo at 44. Even if Buchanan directed Kazran to reimburse contributions to his
7 campaign or had leverage over Kazran as his majority partner or the holder of Kazran debt,
8 Kazran did not have license to break the law.

9 Kazran was also aware that VBFC would report the contributions in the names of HNJ
10 employees and family members, not HNJ. See id. at 32-33. Therefore, Kazran took steps to 11 disguise the source of funds used in illegal activities that might reasonably be explained as a 12 "motivation to evade lawful obligations." See Hoptins, 916 F.2d at 213-14.

13 The evidence in this matter further shows that Kazran's business partner and controller
14 raised questions about the propriety of the reimbursements. Josh Farid told Kazran that what 15 Buchanan asked Kazran to do was improper. Gail Lophart told Kazran that she was concerned
16 about company funds being used to reimburse contributions, but Kazran only responded with a
17 shrug. By continuing an activity that his own associates opined was improper, with his likely
18 awareness that the activity involved deceptive reporting, is further evidence that Kazran's
19 conduct was knowing and willful.

20 In sum, the evidence in this matter shows that Sam Kazran was aware that he was 21 violating the law by causing HNJ to make contributions in the names of others. This Office is 22 therefore prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Sam
23 Kazran knowingly and willfully violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f.

12044311141

1 IV. GENERAL COUNSEL'S RECOMMENDATION

2
3 Find probable cause to believe that Sam Kazran knowingly and willfully violated
4 2 U.S.C. § 441f.
5
6
7

8
9 7-16-10
10 Date

Thomasenia P. Duncan by KB
Thomasenia P. Duncan
General Counsel

Stephen A. Gura
Stephen A. Gura
Deputy Associate General Counsel
for Enforcement

Mark Allen
Mark Allen
Assistant General Counsel

Jack Gould by MA
Jack Gould
Attorney

12044311142

11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27